

2025 Robert “Archie” Archuleta UEA Human & Civil Rights Award

Goals of the Award:

This award is presented annually in conjunction with the UEA Honor Roll Awards at the Superstars in Education Banquet in 2025 to an individual who has engaged in human and civil rights activities that have benefited education and had community-wide impact.

The honoree will also receive a monetary award equal to an Excellence in Teaching Award recipient ($1,500 for 2025).

Selection Criteria:

1. The nominee may be an educator or non-educator working in the area of human and civil rights.
2. The nominee must have provided outstanding service to education in the area of human and civil rights and engaged in human and civil rights activities that have had a community-wide impact.
3. The nominee must be a UEA member if eligible for membership.

Use a separate sheet to write nomination. The individual(s) or group(s) wishing to nominate an honoree may develop a file of documents, newspaper clippings and other supportive materials substantiating the nomination to accompany the nomination form.
