

2025 Elaine Tzourtzouklis Service to Association Award Nomination Form

This award is named in honor of Elaine Tzourtzouklis, life-long association leader, vice president and president of the Salt Lake Education Association, and director of the Wasatch UniServ. Elaine was a true believer in the power of the Association. Elaine was a fierce advocate for members and the Association in general. Elaine held association members to high standards and felt membership was only a small part of belonging. She encouraged members to be engaged, in leadership, political action and advocacy. Elaine had a positive disposition and a keen sense of humor, which served her well in her career

The UEA will recognize recipient(s) of the Elaine Tzourtzouklis Service to Association Award at the Superstars in Education Banquet in 2025. The selection will be made by the UEA Board of Directors.

The honoree will also receive a monetary award equal to an Excellence in Teaching Award recipient ($1,500 for 2025).

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Nominees for this award must be members of the NEA as well as the unified state and local association if there is one for which the person is eligible.
2. The nominee must have provided outstanding service to the Association in the area of member advocacy, political action, leadership, collaboration and/or coalition building. (Could expand this area)
3. Individuals or groups wishing to nominate an honoree may develop a file of documents substantiating the nomination to accompany the nomination form.
4. Provide a black and white or color photo.
